Camp Goals

Our goal at Paul VI Girls Soccer Camp is to improve your athlete's technical and tactical abilities in a fun and positive environment. We will emphasize the importance of fundamentals while developing decision making abilities. We want to ensure each camper is on his/her way to reaching her full potential while having fun at the same time.

Campers to Staff Ratio: 10:1

Work with well-respected coaches and some of the best lock high school players to improve your soccer skills. All while having a great time!

Lunches

$6 per day: Subway or pizza and other snacks will be provided each day.

Weekly lunch costs will be collected the first day of camp

Camp counselors are members of the Paul VI Catholic High School Girls' Soccer Program!

Camp Director: Meg Ashley

Meg Ashley has been the head coach at Paul VI for 29 years. The Panthers won the 2016 Washington Catholic Athletic Conference championship and the 2017 Inaugural NoVIS championship, marking the fifth overall championship during her tenure. The girls' varsity program is consistently ranked locally, regionally and nationally. Coach Ashley was also inducted into the PVI Athletic Hall of Fame. She was the 2016 WCAC Coach of the Year and the Washington Post All-Met Coach of the Year in 1992-93. She was also a captain and starting member of the 1985 George Mason University National Championship women's soccer team. Coach Ashley has also spent 5 years as a coach with the VYSA Olympic Development Program and previously coached for 10 years with the Fairfax Police Youth Club and Springfield Youth Club in the U-9 through U-17 age groups.
